
Title: beh

Author: Circe

I am Justice. Pen my words into thy tome of Love and it will be more complete Justice tempers pure love with truth to provide life's Judgments.
It is also said: give of thy purse to those who beg and thy deed shall not be forgotten.
Justice without force is impotent: force without justice is tyranny
is said: those who inflict in Justice upon others cannot expect fair treatment unto themselves
it is also said: to take the gold of others is injustice not soon forgotten. Take only thy due
take care that the judgments made by thee are in accordance with the will of thine heart.